

CAMFRUD and Friends of Cameroon Reaches out to Orphans

By Ngendap Delphine

Dubbed Solidarity Project for Vulnerable Children (SPVC), the sum of over 2.4 million FCFA has been distributed to the 36 pioneer beneficiaries of project whom according to the President of CAMFRUD Mr. Gwangwa'a Emmanuel is solely to assist orphans of school going age who have beyond every iota of doubt in financial difficulties.

The colourful ceremony that was attended amongst others by the Inspector for Basic Education Bali, Mr. Foncham Paul Babila at the Bali Catholic Health center, was pregnant with emotions and anxiety as the orphans in their teems hugged their guardians to the heart. Speaking at the occasion, the CAMFRUD president Mr. Gwangwa'a Emmanuel, revealed that

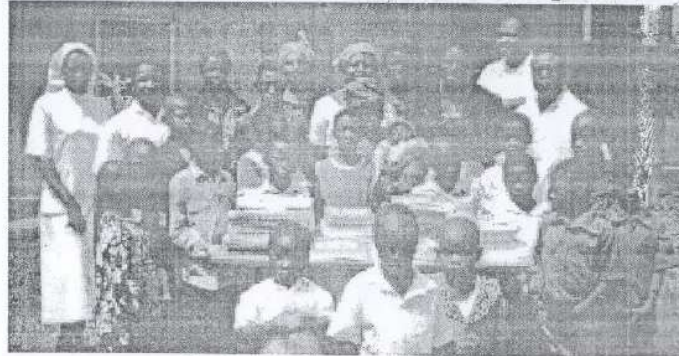

CAMFRUD and Friends of Cameroon is to assist the rural population in particular and others in order to improve on their living standard. But laid emphasis on the fact that it is participatory as guardians shall have to take up their responsibilities to carter for the upbringing and wellbeing of the babies and orphans at all time. He revealed that each orphan pupil shall be offered

Scholarships from classes 1 to six. Focus being that being professionalisation of the orphan so that after school, he she can be able to sustain his/herself in the society. Reasons why the Solidarity Project for Vulnerable Children (SPVC) gives a survival chance to the baby orphans, give them basic education up to the primary school level and Cameroon appreciated the influential role exhibited by CAMFRUD and Friends of Cameroon in the enhancement of elementary education from elementary. He made it known that lofty NGOs like CAMFRUD and Friends of Cameroon have never gone unnoticed with their numerous assistance heaped in Bali over the years.

For supporting the venerable with school textbooks and the payment of school fees, is very commendable in the hearts of the guardians and particularly the Ministry of Basic education. He called for the judicious use of the New Year gifts, while thanking great NGOs like those mention above for being real partners.

Guardians on the part expressed joy while Head teachers promised

Orphan pupils pose with Executive

CAMFRUD President Gwangwa'a Emmanuel handing over textbook

CAMFRUD president Mr. Gwangwa'a Emmanuel, revealed that the project to assist and support orphans in the Bali community started in September 2012 when as one of their priority projects, CAMFRUD and Friends of Cameroon Germany saw the need to extend their humanitarian largesse to these segment of our population whose situation in line with education was and is not of the best.

To have realized this objective of the NGO, a committee was put in place to carryout an inventory of the number of orphans in some primary schools in the subdivision. Consequently, the take off of the solidarity Project for Vulnerable Children came into being. He told invitees and guardians that, the general mission of baby orphans, give them basic education up to the primary school level and most importantly to fight reduce illiteracy at it barest level in Bali-Cameroon.

Going by the objective of the NGO, the chairman, further revealed that support to needy children and orphans is going to yearly because statistics indicate that HIV/AIDS parents are increasing with wallowing gap of children to face difficulties in health and education in future.

Amongst others he challenged guardians to make sure they put into good use the material and financial support given the children who are under their care. But warned that guardians who shall falsify ghost names shall face the music

On his part the IBE Bali, Mr. Foncham Paul Babila on behalf of the government of Guardians on the part expressed joy while Head teachers promised to enforce the objectives of CAMFRUD and its partners. Souvenir pictures graced the occasion.

Management team: The members who make up the team for the Solidarity Project for Vulnerable Children (SPVC) were presented the population. They according to its president Mr. Gwangwa'a Emmanuel represent the different partners of CAMFRUD and Friends of Cameroon network in its activities.

Notably: Friends of Cameroon, CAMFRUD, Catholic Health Centre, and the Orphan Association Bali. Words of encouragement went the project coordinator, Mrs. Wabang Mulem Martina, who masterminded the success story of the kick off of the project.

Orphans pose with their parents

Health personnel handing over gifts

Inspector of Basic Education congratulating CAMFRUD President